

LOCAL EVENTS

—Robert Ferriman was laid up with a severe cold the fore part of the week, but is considerably better now.

—D. W. Davis has been confined to his home the past week by illness, but is convalescing.

—An advertised letter is at the Medina postoffice are for William Cole.

—J. F. Dickey, nightwatchman at the A. I. Root Co., has moved his family from Chippewa Lake to Medina.

—C. Steidle and family of Brunswick will move to Medina about Nov. 1, having sold their farm to Andrew Erb of Medina, who will remove there about the same time.

—Mrs. H. G. Fulmer underwent an operation for tumor Monday at a Columbus hospital and is improving. She was accompanied by Mr. Fulmer.

—Mr. and Mrs. Al. Young were in an automobile accident last Friday while enroute to Akron fair, which caused considerable damage to their machine, but they escaped without injury. While Mr. Young's eyes were temporarily off duty his car swerved into a culvert siding with the above noted result. While Al. was in anguish of heart over the possibility of missing the fair races, Omar Shaw drove along, gathered Mr. and Mrs. Young into his car, and the party arrived in the rubber city in good time. The damaged car was hauled back to Medina for repairs, which were sadly needed.

—On Friday evening the Methodist church gave a reception to their new pastor, Rev. Bryenton and family and their former pastor, Rev. Ross and wife. A delightful musical program was enjoyed by all and Miss Anna Bigelow gave several readings. The various church organizations were represented and all cordially welcomed the new pastor and spoke kind words of appreciation to the former pastor.

—On Friday evening, Nov. 1, the piano pupils of John Beck will give their annual recital in the Methodist church for the benefit of Red Cross. Mrs. James, Miss Anna Bigelow and the Glee club will assist.

—Bishop Frank DeMoulin of Toledo will deliver a talk on the war at St. Paul's church on the evening of Friday, Oct. 18, at 7:30 o'clock, to which the public is cordially invited.

—Medina has the promise of a quota of work in surgical dressings and supplies, to be sent soon from the headquarters in Cleveland. The Odd Fellows Lodge have given the use of their dining room for the classes and as a work room. Notice will be given in the local newspapers when the quota is received and the work room ready.

—Howard Calvert has been appointed new scoutmaster of local troop 2.

—A. D. Summers has accepted a position in the Los Angeles plant of the A. I. Root Co., and Mr. and Mrs. Summers will make Los Angeles their future home.

—The Spencerian Business College football team of Cleveland went down to defeat last Friday in a game with the Medina team on the local grounds, to a score of 6 to 0.

—Council Food Administrator Randall went to Columbus Tuesday to attend a meeting of the Food Administrators of the state, called by State Food Administrator Fred Croxton for Wednesday and Thursday. Herbert Hoover, U. S. Food Administrator, just back to the United States after a conference with the Allied Food Controllers of England, France and Italy, was present at the meeting to discuss the new war food program for the coming year. Mrs. Randall accompanied her husband to Columbus, from where she went to Dayton to spend a couple of days with her sister, Mrs. Harold Tubbs.

—Two Liberty Loan meetings were held Wednesday afternoon, one in front of the A. I. Root Co.'s plant at 12:45, and the other at the Henry-Miller Foundry Co., at 1:15. Wm. G. Dietz of Cleveland was the speaker at both meetings. A large crowd was at each meeting, both plants permitting their employees to attend. The speaker outlined the causes of the war and the reasons for this country's participation, and forcefully emphasized the importance of a successful Liberty Loan. Two soldiers from France arrived too late to speak at the factory meetings, but spoke in the high school building with Mr. Dietz later in the afternoon.

—Mrs. E. A. Washburn left for Camp Taylor, Ky., Tuesday, in response to a telegram advising her of the critical illness of her son, Floyd Hoyt, with pneumonia.

—Herbert Broadway is seriously ill with pneumonia at Camp Sherman, but was reported as slightly improving in a card received by his father on Wednesday.

—Thursday's afternoon papers published the unconfirmed rumor that the kaiser had abdicated.

—The Medina high school football team will play the Wooster team on the latter's grounds this afternoon, Friday.

—Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mummaw of Poe, died Wednesday morning in Cincinnati of pneumonia. His mother was with him at the time. The body reached Medina Thursday evening and funeral services will be held today from the home at 2 o'clock.

—Certain Granger farmers who took produce to the Akron market last Friday, returned with it rather than accept the low rate offered them there, the excuse given them by the Akron dealers being that "the war is about over." A poor excuse is better than none.

—Among the twenty killed and score or more injured in the railroad disaster at Bedford on Thursday of last week, was S. A. Howard of Cleveland, who about two years ago was employed in Floyd Pelton's barber shop in Medina. He was a son-in-law of Elmer E. Rawlings of Chatham, and well known to many Medina people. With others he was waiting to go to work at a factory near by, when a fast express train ran into them.

—Dr. W. D. Wise of Akron, has received a commission as captain, and —Albert Schmidt, who for the past three months has been stationed at Newport News, Va., has been honorably discharged because of a deformed knee-cap, and returned to his home in Medina on Monday.

The Temple Workers of the Baptist church will meet next Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ed. Ritter, 517 Wadsworth Road.

—The funeral of F. W. Ashley, who died in Cleveland, Oct. 2, was held Saturday afternoon, Oct. 5, at the home of Clarence Cole, 403 E. Washington street, formerly the family home of the deceased's father, Frank Ashley. The service was conducted by Rev. Wm. Drew of the Congregational church and the Masonic order. Mr. Ashley's early years were spent in Medina, where he began the study of pharmacy in the drug store then conducted by W. H. Albrow. Later he completed his studies at Ann Arbor university, and for some time conducted a drug business of his own at Grafton, and still later at Zanesville. For a time he abandoned his profession and associated himself with the Wood Lumber Co., at Lorain, later engaging in the same line of business in Florida, where he established a home to which he repaired at winter time. He was 49 years old and is survived by a widow and one daughter. The father of the deceased was a former county commissioner, elected from Litchfield township.

—Miss Marion Whipple has succeeded Ruth Wright as scoutmistress of the Medina Girl Scouts.

—John, young son of J. W. Tuttle, has been ill the past week, but not seriously.

OFFICIAL REPORTS SHOW INFLUENZA IS GAINING

Influenza is spreading in Ohio. This fact was apparent Monday in a summary of scattering reports from the various parts of the state to the State Department of Health.

Stopping of public gatherings until the danger of an epidemic is past was recommended by the department as the only effective means of fighting the disease. Quarantine of individual cases was said to be of slight value, because of the rapidity with which the disease spreads and because the most highly contagious period is at the onset.

The most serious outbreak yet reported among the smaller places, are at New Concord, the seat of Muskingum College, where 150 cases and two deaths have been reported, and at Washington C. H., where case estimates run above 1,000. Chillicothe and Xenia have epidemics in the opening stages, and outbreaks are reported from Norwood, Blanchester, Tiffin and Wellston, besides nearly all of the larger cities, influenza being a "crowd" disease. Camp Sherman medical authorities are battling a serious epidemic and claim to have it under control.

Influenza appears to have been brought into Ohio principally by men from military camps and from the Great Lakes naval training station, according to state health officials.

GEORGE STARR

Democratic Candidate

COUNTY TREASURER

I am a candidate for County Treasurer. I entered my name only after Republican and Democratic friends had come to me and urged me to become a candidate. I listened to their solicitation and, having listened, finally consented. I now have the very natural desire to win. I cannot meet you personally, however much one enjoys a personal canvass. These are War Times. Neither your work or mine permits time for handshaking. I depend upon these few written words therefore, to state my case.

I was born in Medina County, Ohio. I am 55 years old and own and operate a 200-acre farm on which I have lived for the last 50 years. I have served York Township 11 years as Township Trustee and Medina County 4 years as County Commissioner. I simply mention these facts for what they may be worth, thanking not only the members of my own party, but also the non-partisan voters of a township and county normally claimed Republican, for my past opportunities in public service, and permitting them to compare and judge my principles and methods both in private business and public work.

I naturally seek the office for its honor, and in return for that honor, my sole desire would be to reward you with faithful service. It has always been my ambition to exercise efficiency, economy and courtesy at all times, and if from my life among you, you believe me qualified for County Treasurer, I would greatly appreciate your support at the polls.

Sincerely submitted,

GEORGE STARR.

WEATHER RECORD BEFORE 1860 WANTED

What do you know about the weather before 1860? This is a question being sent out by the United States weather bureau, Columbus, and the Ohio Experiment Station, Wooster, to secure old records of weather conditions, such as unusual cold spells, hot spells, dry spells, wet spells, frosts, snowfall, floods, local and general storms.

A full comprehensive history of Ohio weather, to cover the entire period from the first settlement in 1788 to the present time, is the object of information wanted. Since 1860 the weather records are much more complete than before that date, but the officials believe that much valuable meteorological data may be found in old family archives, private and public libraries, diaries, and old newspapers. Such material when collected will also present long-desired scientific information for botanists, soil specialists and plant pathologists, it is stated.

Even eye observations of the weather records and every item bearing on the early weather history is wanted; its source, if known and reliable, should be given. Full credit will be given to those rendering aid in securing the old records.

OBITUARY

J. Fletcher Wilson died at his home in Wadsworth, O., Tuesday morning, Oct. 1, after an illness of several months, death being due to a complication of diseases. He was aged 79 years, 5 months and 13 days. Funeral services were held from the M. E. church Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Ross and the remains interred in Woodlawn cemetery.

The deceased was born near Doylestown on April 18, 1839, and was a son of Wm. R. and Margaret Franks Wilson. He was married Oct. 1, 1873, to Louisa Simmons, who, with two sons, Russell and Harry, and one daughter, Mrs. Wm. O. Hannon, survive. Six grandchildren and one brother, Frank, of near Doylestown, also survive.

Mr. Wilson was a pioneer school teacher, having taught many years in the schools of Wayne county. He has resided in Wadsworth for seventeen years, previous to which he was engaged in farming. He was a life-long member of the Methodist church and an earnest worker in the cause of religion. His death occurred on the morning of his 45th wedding anniversary.
